TPG GOLF Building New Performance Center and Golf Academy at Cimarrone Golf Club in Saint Johns, Florida.

Saint Johns, Florida - Today, TPG GOLF announced a multi-year agreement with Cimarrone Golf Club in Saint Johns, Florida to build and operate a state-of-the-art Performance Center and Golf Academy on the practice grounds at the Cimarrone Golf Club. Construction is already underway and the 720-square-foot facility is scheduled to open in late January 2020.

The TPG GOLF Performance Center and Golf Academy is a year-round indoor/outdoor golf facility that provides a comprehensive setting for private instruction, junior programs, clinics, custom club fittings, club repairs, golf fitness training and supervised academy practice. Under the agreement, TPG GOLF has exclusive rights to golf instruction programs at Cimarrone Golf Club and a partnership with the club to provide custom golf club fitting and golf club retail sales.

The Performance Center will feature two instruction bays with multiple HDTV screens, down-the-line and face-on camera angles, real time video analysis, FlightScope 3D launch monitor analysis, real time shot tracer, and force plate balance and pressure shift analysis technology. In addition, TPG GOLF is partnering with Mizuno Golf to provide the latest state-of-the-art Mizuno club fitting system, golf shaft analyzer and over 100 shaft combinations on site to provide players with the most comprehensive club fitting experience in the area.

“Our team is very excited about our partnership with Cimarrone Golf Club and the construction of our new performance center on the front side of the practice grounds. Our mission is to provide PGA Tour-level instruction programs to golfers of all skill levels and the performance center provides the capability to bring the new age of golf instruction to more players in the Jacksonville area. The TPG GOLF and Cimarrone Golf partnership is a great fit to grow the game for not only juniors but for adults looking for innovative golf instruction programs at an affordable rate.” Rob Bannon, President TPG Golf.
